

TIRGAN

SUNDAY, JULY 5, 2009 ■ 11 AM - 5 PM
GROUP PICNIC AREA, CABIN JOHN REGIONAL PARK
7701 Tuckerman Lane, Rockville MD 20852

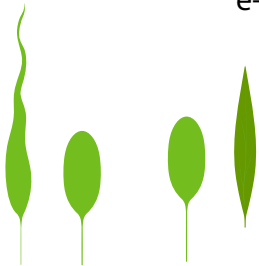

Tirgan, the ancient Iranian rain festival, is celebrated in July (the Tir month of the Persian calendar) and refers to the archangel Tir (arrow) or Tishtar (lightning bolt) who appeared in the sky to generate thunder and lightning for much needed rain. (Wikipedia)

Come enjoy a day of fun with friends and family.

- Play a game of softball or volleyball.
- Try your hand at horseshoe pits.
- Let your little children enjoy the kids' playground area.
- POTLUCK -- bring your favorite dishes to share.
Please bring charcoal if you intend to grill.
PLEASE ALSO BRING YOUR OWN PAPER PRODUCTS AND DRINKS.
- Chak-o Dooleh -- get your fortune told in poetry.
- Cold beer will be available for sale, please DO NOT bring any other alcoholic beverages, it is against park rules, and you will be fined $100.
- DON'T FORGET YOUR WATER GUNS!
- Dogs must be kept on a leash.

For more information contact Mina Aidun 703-262-0432 or e-mail minaid27@yahoo.com

Directions: Take Old Georgetown Rd. North off I-495, turn left on Tuckerman Lane. Go past light for Westlake Drive, turn right into the Group Picnic Area (fenced-in area on the right).